

BSPH Convocation 2022 Speaker: Margaret Hamburg, MD

Dr. Margaret Hamburg, an internationally recognized leader in public health and medicine, will be the featured speaker for the Bloomberg School of Public Health Convocation ceremony. Dr. Hamburg is currently chair of the advisory group for NTI | bio, a nonprofit global security organization that works to reduce the nuclear and biological threats that endanger our world. She was also recently named chair of the Commonwealth Fund Commission on a National Public Health System. Previously, she served as foreign secretary of the National Academy of Medicine, commissioner of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, founding vice president and senior scientist at the Nuclear Threat Initiative, and health commissioner for New York City, among other high-profile positions. When it comes to tackling today's complex public health challenges—from emergency preparedness to health equity to regulatory science—Dr. Hamburg has exceptional experience and insight.
