Combined Bachelor’s/Master’s Applicants
All Johns Hopkins University undergraduate students interested in the Bachelor’s/MHA, Bachelor’s/MHS, or Bachelor’s/MSPH programs can apply during the summer between their junior and senior years. The application deadline is July 1.

The departments of Environmental Health and Engineering; Health, Behavior and Society; and Mental Health allow JHU seniors to apply to their respective Bachelor’s/Master’s degrees during the beginning of their senior year until October 15 once the application reopens in mid-August.

January Start for Departmental Master’s Programs
The following programs offer a part-time format with a January start date:

- Master of Bioethics
- MHS in Environmental Health from the Department of Environmental Health and Engineering
- MHS in Population, Family and Reproductive Health Online
- MS in Toxicology for Human Risk Assessment from the Department of Environmental Health and Engineering
- MSPH in Health Education and Health Communication from the Department of Health, Behavior and Society

The deadline for these programs is October 15 for the January start date.

Priority Deadline
Deadline to be considered for particular merit based scholarship. Please review program information for details.

Vivien Thomas Scholars Initiative
The VTSI is available for applicants from HBCUs and MSIs to the PhD offered through the departments of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology; Biostatistics; Environmental Health and Engineering; and Molecular Microbiology and Immunology. Applicants should request a fee waiver to the appropriate department by November 15 and submit their SOPHAS application no later than November 30.
