Confidential, provided upon intake. Our non-residential programs operate out of our confidential Manhattan, Queens, and Bronx locations and partners with the Family Justice Center on a weekly basis. For Referrals: 24-Hour Bilingual Hotline 1(800)-664-5880 or via Unite US	English, Spanish	No	Services Offered: operate four non-residential social service programs, two residential programs (shelter and transitional housing), a 24/7 hotline, and a communications and outreach department. VIP provides free and confidential crisis counseling, advocacy and support for survivors of intimate partner and sexual violence in English and Spanish. Counselor Advocates support clients in crisis by providing immediate support and referrals in emergencies and ongoing counseling for survivors of intimate partner and sexual violence. We support survivors with safety planning (short-term and long-term), recovery from abuse through trauma-informed counseling and psychoeducation, advocacy and accompaniment services, empowerment-based support groups including Explorando Sanacion: healing series for survivors of violence and Mujer y Sexualidad: explores complex sexual trauma, including childhood sexual abuse and its impact in adult relationships. We also host ongoing yoga series with Exhale to Inhale, and various Know Your Rights workshops, in addition to several informational sessions with Planned Parenthood. The Economic Justice and Survival Program (EJSP) addresses issues of economic inequity literacy that survivors of intimate partner and sexual violence face and which undermine their safety, through including business management and financial literacy classes. EJSP, like all VIP programs, serves survivors regardless of their gender, immigration status, language, income, or educational level.
