

Sirens: The Voices of Change

Hosted by:

Grant & Eisenhofer

Sparking transformation by raising our voices and awareness to shift mindsets in the name of healing, inspiring change, protecting children, and ensuring a brighter future for all.

Ernestine Briggs-King

Vice President of Community and Family
Interventions,
Kennedy Krieger Institute

Patrick J. Wall

Advocate,
Grant & Eisenhofer P.A.

C. Alexandria-
Bernard Thomas

CEO,
Christopher Thomas
Works, LLC

Christopher Thomas
WORKS, LLC

Moore Center for the Prevention of Child Sexual Abuse

Prevention Through Children's Books

An Author Discussion on How Books Can Facilitate Prevention Conversations between Caregivers and Children

Hosted by:

DARKNESS TO LIGHT®
END CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE

These women of prevention share how their experiences in authoring books and engaging the community have created practical prevention tools for child safety. This session will involve story-telling and learned insights on how writing best-selling books and creating tools for children can combat abuse.

Tracy Leonard

Diane Tarantini

Kimberly King

Julie Federico

Julie Federico Children's Service Author
www.juliefederico.com

Shariea Shoatz

Kristen A. Jensen

Moore Center for the Prevention of Child Sexual Abuse

“I can tell you because you’re a doctor”

The Role of Primary Care Health Providers in the Primary Prevention of Child Sexual Abuse

Hosted by:

Learn from two compelling thought leaders on the importance of primary health care providers to understand child sexual abuse. Hear practical insights on how front-line health care providers can address the diagnostic and therapeutic needs for children suspected of experiencing sexual abuse.

Martin A. Finkel, DO, FACOP, FAAP
Professor Emeritus of Pediatrics,
Founding Co-director, Child Abuse
Research Education Service (CARES)
Institute, Rowan University, Rowan-
Virtua School of Osteopathic

Adrienne Simeone, Founder,
The Mamma Bear Effect